The Only Effective Gospel
Galatians 1:6-9

171022

As Paul writes his letter to the Galatians he is deeply concerned, in fact he is astonished, that the churches are being led away by false teachers. The problem is pointed out in the book of Acts chapter 15. Here Paul and Barnabas had returned from their first missionary journey and came face to face with some men from Jerusalem who would demand that the Gentiles become converted to Judaism before they could be considered Christian. They demanded that the churches keep the law of Moses.

Paul goes straight to the problem. Galatians 4:13-15

Some men had come from Jerusalem. Galatians 2:4-5

They brought a different gospel. 2 Corinthians 11:4

There really is no other gospel. Acts 4:11-12

And yet, the Galatians were falling for it. 2 Corinthians 11:13-15

These were Paul's spiritual children. Galatians 4:19-20

The gospel is essential. Romans 3:23; 6:23; 5:8; Matthew 11:28-30

Romans 10:9-10 and 14.

The false teachers come along saying that their gospel was really no different from Paul's gospel. At least three times in the New Testament Paul refers to "my gospel". In Romans 2:16 Paul tells us that according to his Gospel God judges the secrets of men. In Romans 6:25 he affirms that his Gospel was based on the preaching of Jesus Christ. In fact, Paul had seen that the gospel was given to Abraham when God said, "in you shall all the nations be blessed." That "blessing" is salvation through Jesus Christ! Have you received him as your Lord and Savior? Today could be your day of salvation!
